Dr W J Beasley of Hartsville spent the day in town Monday.

Mr D W Avant and Mr Buerton were here Monday from Harpers.

Mr and Mrs A M Gordon of Gourdins were visitors in town Monday.

Mr James Epps went to Marion last week to attend the Holiness Association meeting.

Mr E J Pendergrass of Florence came over for a few days last week on a hunting expedition.

Former Governor Hugh S Thompson of South Carolina died of asthma Sunday in New York City.

Mr M A Ross cut his leg quite painfully with a hatchet last week and is still confined to his room.

The Graded school will give holiday Thursday and Friday in order to fittingly celebrate Thanksgiving.

Mr P G Gourdian and his aunt, Miss Mena Boyd, returned last week from a visit to relatives in New York City.

Thursday being Thanksgiving we print the paper one day earlier this week so as to give our force a day's holiday.

There will be preaching in the Presbyterian church next Sunday afternoon, Nov 27, at 4 o'clock by Rev Carl Booth.

Our jolly friend, W T Wilkins, was last week "the smile that won't come off"—the cause, a twelve pound boy.

Capt and Mrs D R Smith stopped over in town Sunday night returning from New York to their home at Smith's Mills.

Mr Eddie Lewis returned Friday night from the sunny land of flowers with his bride, who was Miss Janie Johnson, of DeFuniak Spring's Florida.

On behalf of the Graded school Prof Bertha requests us to thank every one who helped and also the contributing public for their liberal response to the school's needs.

Attention is called to the following new ads: Stuckey & Flowers, Lake City, Bank of Kingtree, Kingtree Bargain Store, Kingtree Hardware Co., A C L Railroad, Laurens Steam Laundry.

A large crowd of negroes gathered in town Monday to participate in the "laying of the corner-stone" of Mt Zion church, which, by the way, has just been rebuilt after being destroyed by fire some months ago.

One of the finest porcine specimens we have ever seen produced in this county was a hog sold recently to Mr Keels by Mr H T McClary, who raised it on his farm near town. It weighed 300 pounds gross and about 260 net.

Mr M F Heller left this week for Western markets to replenish his stables with more stock. Next week he will have on hand a choice lot of horses and mules and all his friends and patrons are cordially invited to call and look them over.

Our new press has arrived and is being put up. In a few weeks we hope to be able to move into our new quarters when the long promised enlargement and improvement of the paper will materialize. Bear with us yet a little while; we'll get there by and by.

The hot supper given in the court house Friday night for the benefit of the graded school was a success both pronounced and gratifying. After deducting expenses the proceeds amounted to $103.60. This sum will go a long way toward buying a bell for the school.
